Travel Director's report: Kim Villatoro: The Majority of uniforms have come in. We are still waiting a few of the later orders. Soccer.com is offering a $25 gift card to all players for any inconvenience with their delays. An email will follow with the information through the registration accounts.. The team store on soccer.com will be adding new items for purchase soon. Walker field is completed, looks great and is ready for use. We need to order more icepacks. Ice packs and balls will be distributed to coaches. In the event indoor permits are not obtained, we will have outdoor use of field at Kolm over the winter. No practices when temperature is below 32 degrees or windchill 15MPH or greater.

Vice President: Chris Accord- Not Available

President: Andy Spathis: Geise field has been cleaned up and looking great. Lines were redone and are color coded now, Lawn and nets have been taken care of. There was an issue with a referee at Geise claiming the nets were too small. It has been verified and the nets can remain being that they are correct size. Kolm field has trash all over. Again we are asking that everyone try to help keep the field clean. Pick up bottles and caps if you see them. It is time for our annual participation with the Lexi Bean Foundation/ Holy Family CYO to help children and their families with cancer. Mike Wallace will be our go to person to help us participate.
