The only major expense left to pay is for the Cosmos, roughly $12,000, and any future oil deliveries. At this time last year we had about $109,000 in the account.

Registrars Report: Lou Deturris

Current registration: Micros 5, Intramurals 105. Travel is down about 75 from last year; however we may add a team and some teams are not fully registered.

Intramural Director's Report: Mike Longo speaking for Andy Spathis

Uniforms were distributed, everything running smoothly at the moment. Intramurals began tonight which will run over approximately 9 weeks.

Travel Report: NA

Vice President Report: Mike Wallace

We received the winter permits for gym practice time. We need to determine date for the winter festival. The KFC soccer challenge was a failure, no attendance. We will likely not participate next year. Tyler Arnone is looking to do a clinic for the club as he will be back in NY.

President's Report: Mike Longo

Field clean up, we need to make sure everything is clean after practices and games.

Old Business: Discussion regarding James Santos.

New Business: We should require coaches to fill out an application for their trainers. Mike Wallace will send out a sample application for everyone to review.

Meeting adjourned at 8:10
